

Insurance

Things You Should Know

Your dental insurance is your responsibility; therefore it is important that you get as much information as possible. Dental plans vary greatly, making it difficult for us to know the specifics of your plan.

To find out what your plan covers or to answer questions below you can:

- Call your insurance
- Log in online
- Ask your Administrator/Human Resource department

What to Have Handy

- 1) Name of policy holder or insured
- 2) Date of Birth
- 3) Policy Number
- 4) Certificate/ID Number

Be Sure to Ask the Following

You can record the answers/information below for your records:

Questions	Answers
1) What is the annual maximum allowed per person for basic dental services and the percentage of coverage?
2) What is the annual maximum allowed per person for major dental services and the percentage of coverage?
3) How many units of scaling and/or root planning are covered per year?
4) What is the frequency of Exams, Polish, and Fluoride?
5) What is the frequency of x-rays?	Bitewing (BW) _____ Pericical (PA) _____ Panoramic (PAN) _____
6) Are benefits allotted per calendar year? If No , new benefits starts on:
7) Is there an annual deductible? If so , how much is it?
8) Do you have Orthodontic coverage? If so , what is your lifetime maximum?

If you need help understanding the information provided please come early to your next appointment and we will do our best to assist!